Wake Me Up (Page 2)

Tim Reimherr

The nations gather as they say
Let's break their bonds
And cast their chains
I need to be ready
Deep darkness is coming soon
Do I have oil to make it through
I need to be ready

Bridge:

Bm

Time is running out, I say to all who hear
Lift your voice and shout
The bridegroom is in the land
Turn while there's still time
The Lord He may relent
Will the way you live your life
Make it through
When God judges you.
