

Tastes So Sweet

Words and Music by Audra Lynn

Matt. 25:1–13, Jn. 6:48,63

Verse:

(Am-Em-D)

I don't wanna get caught in the struggle
Of begging for my bread to survive
There's a better pursuit for my effort
Of mysteries that never run dry

I don't wanna be lost in the shadows
Without the oil to light my way
On the day that You come, I won't stumble
If I fill my lamp day by day

Chorus:

(Am-Em-G-D)

I don't wanna waste another day
On things that pass on by and then fade away
There's life inside Your Word
And it tastes so sweet to me

Daily is the bread of your salvation
Opening Your hand and sustaining love
Your water, it runs free
And it tastes so sweet to me
