

The Truth Shall Set You Free

Zach Simms

Verse 1:

So let every fetter fall to the floor and every barrier crumble
Break every chain around our legs, that fear may no longer stumble

Verse 2:

The thumping of our hearts in rhythm has become the thought of a closed door
Oh consume it with unquenchable fire as if it had never been closed before

Chorus:

Oh the truth shall set you free, oh the truth shall set you free
Oh the truth shall set you free, free indeed, free indeed

Bridge:

And the walls are gonna gonna come on down
And the walls are gonna gonna come on down

Verse 3:

The day is coming closer; every tear shall be wiped away
And the face of truth we'll finally see—Jesus Christ, the Lamb who was slain
Jesus Christ, the King who reigns
