

The Conquering Lion

Grace Falkner

Verse:

The Conquering Lion shall break every chain
He will wipe every tear away; He will take all my hurt and pain

Chorus:

He will lead me to springs of living water
He will lead me to springs of living water
He will lead me to springs of living water
He will shepherd me

Bridge:

And the Lord, He will come to us
With a strong hand and a mighty outstretched arm
And the Lord, He will shepherd us, and the Lord, He will lead us to Fountains of living water, fountains of living water
