

Point of Life

Misty Edwards

Verse 1:

Remember now your Creator, in the days of youth
Remember now your Creator, before the silver cord is loosed
For flesh will return to the dust; the spirit will return to God

Pre-chorus:

For all men go to eternity, and their mourners mourn in the street
But there's more to life than just vanity, I can see

Chorus:

Knowing You is the answer to the riddle of the point of life
The point of life is You, it's You
Loving You is the reason that I'm breathing, it's the absolute
The point of life is You, it's You

Verse 2:

Men live lives of futility, forgetting where they began
Men live lives of fragility, not knowing where they end
Yet all men die in the end, but the end is where they begin
