

You Lift Me Up

Jonas Park

Verse:

You have my heart; still we're apart
You promised me I would be right where You are

And oh how I trust You, but I sure miss You
And all that I need I will find when I abide

Chorus:

I remember, I remember
The faithfulness of Your touch and how You lift me up
Because You always, yes, You always
Delight in showing mercy; oh Father, lift me up

Before Tag: I surrender, I surrender
I lift my hands to You; I know You'll lift me up
Because You always, yes, You always
Delight in showing mercy; oh Father, lift me up

Bridge:

I'm holding on, for love is holding me
I'm holding on, for love is holding me

Tag:

Holding nothing back, I open up my soul unto You, Lord
Holding nothing back, I open up my soul unto You, Lord
