

My Reward

Tim Reimherr

Verse 1:

It's alright with me to waste my life here at Your feet
This one needed thing will never be taken
I'm keeping Your commands with my heart, with all I am
When the storm comes rolling in, I'll never be shaken

'Cause I'm living for the unseen

Chorus:

You are all I'm living for; my ever great reward is to live with You forever
All my heart is aching for is the day of Your return, to live with You forever

Verse 2:

Life is vanity without first knowing You love me
This one thing I seek, to see Your beauty
I'm a stranger here with You, and nothing in this life will do
Until a resting place for You is established

'Cause I'm living for the unseen

Bridge:

No matter how good this life may get, for me it will never be the best
Until You find Your home here
Running this race to win the prize, I will not give sleep to my eyes
Until You find Your home here