

Break Open Heaven

Christ for the Nations

Verse 1:

God of heaven, breathe into Your Bride; our spirits are yearning
For our hearts to burn before Your eyes; the righteous are calling
The clouds of heaven open, rain down fire, Your glory is falling
Holy King, such a beautiful mystery

Chorus:

Break open heaven, invade earth with fire
Your kingdom is coming, Your kingdom is coming
Let Your glory spread a flame through the breath of revival

Verse 2:

Winds of truth now blow as seasons change; Your promise is stirring
Righteous hearts to call upon Your name; a hope is arising
Let Your power dance on tongues of fire, displaying Your wonders
Holy King, such a beautiful mystery

Bridge:

Holy, holy, God Almighty
Heaven come down, we are responding
